

Our home is our private place. Just as we can refuse to admit a solicitor at our door, we should be able to refuse to let unwanted solicitors disturb us by phone. The Wisconsin do not call list has been a great thing giving us our private lives back. We used to get 10 or more calls a day, some even after we were asleep. Please do not change it. It is working as it is. Thank you.